The East Greene Hawks compiled the best fall record of any Grand Junction, Dana or East Greene team since 1939 when Grand Junction won the State championship. On their way to a 7-2 record, East gained the sub-state finals where they were defeated by St. John's of Bancroft 6-0. The fine play of the Hawkeyes was accented by the excellent pitching of Terry Vipond, who finished the season with a 6-2 record, and the hitting of "Murderers' Row", Doug Goodrich, .260; Jim Scott, .275; John Goodrich, .400; Wayne Juhl, .300; and Bob Morlan, .400. The Hawks ended their fall season leading the Little Central Conference with a 3-1 record.

After losing four letter winners from 1961's team, the Hawkettes faced a major rebuilding job. However, they did have a winning 10-9 record in an on again, off again season. Scrap and hustle, which made up to some extent for ability, helped them win the county and sectional consolations and finish second in the conference. Sharon Frantz led the scoring with a 23.4 average.

East's Hawks did not prove to be a top-rate club until tournament time rolled around. Bringing a 4-12 record into the Sectional, they played superb basketball gaining the finals. Leading scorers for the Hawks were Doug Goodrich and Bud Fagen, each with 16-point averages. Being a young club, you can expect much from the Hawkeyes in the future.

East's cheerleaders are, without a doubt, the backbone of athletics at East Greene. Among their many projects are included all pep rallies, pep dances, game posters and supervising game transportation. Our cheerleaders have definitely contributed to the betterment of sportsmanship at East Greene. The Hawks, Hawkeyes and Hawkettes salute you.

FFA

Officers

The FFA sponsored a corn test plot north of Grand Junction this summer. They were active in judging workouts, participating at Sac City, The Little International, Spencer and at Boone. The E. G. FFA team placed 6th at the Boone contest. They also sold pop corn at home basketball games. Led by Jerry Ostrander, as president, they have contributed much to the betterment of our school and community.

Pep Club

The Pep Club Officers are, President, Bob Morlan; Vice-President; Janet Henderson, Secretary; John Goodrich, Treasurer; Janet Colby, with Mr. Kooker advisor.

The Pep Club consisted of 94 members. Some of the most important activities sponsored by the organization were dances and transportation to the out-of-town games. This group proved to be a very active organization in the school.
